

DWAYNE FULK
President & Chief Executive Officer

Dwayne Fulk is the President & Chief Executive Officer for City Utilities of Springfield, Missouri (CU), and has served in that position since 2024.

Prior to his current role, Dwayne has served in a number of roles at CU over the past seven years, including Associate General Manager-General Counsel, Vice President-Chief Legal Officer and Senior Vice President-Chief Legal & Economic Development Officer. He also oversaw CU's Developer Services, Economic Development, Electric Reliability Compliance, Environmental Affairs, Internal Auditing, Legal and Government Relations, and Records Governance departments.

His 25 years of experience practicing law with local, regional, and national law firms before joining CU in 2017 emphasized mergers and acquisitions, entity startup, finance and development, franchise and distribution, commercial aviation, and international transactions.

Among other professional, civic, and charitable activities, Dwayne has served as President of the Springfield Metropolitan Bar Association, Rotary Club of Springfield, and Greater Ozarks Chapter of the American Red Cross. He currently serves on the Members Committee of Southwest Power Pool and the Board of Directors of Accelerate SGF, Inc., Care to Learn, OTC Public Building Corporation, Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce, and Springfield Business and Development Corporation.

Dwayne graduated from Missouri State University with a Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs and from Duke University with a Juris Doctor and Master in Laws in International and Comparative Law.

CU is a progressive, community-owned utility serving 320 square miles in southwest Missouri since 1945 with electricity, natural gas, water, broadband, and public transportation services. CU is overseen by a governing board comprised of local citizens. Over 120,000 CU customers enjoy electricity prices among the lowest in the United States, the convenience of one bill for all utilities, and dependable hometown services delivered with a personal touch.
